

20 years, 5000 clients, 200 million transactions per year. 2 processing platforms on both sides of the Rocky Mountains.

Eigen has a twenty-year track record of achievement in providing merchants with technologies to accept various forms of payment. Our clients range in size and industry, from small home businesses to national enterprises. Merchants choose Eigen because of our outstanding client support, clear and sensible advice, and unique Complete Payment Management approach.

Solutions That Fit

Fit Your Industry

Whether you need a strategy that addresses customer throughput at the checkout, telephone credit card processing, or secure online payment for your eBusiness, Eigen has a payment solution that is right for you.

Fit Your Payment Situation

Eigen's solutions are designed to fit with your existing investment in payment infrastructure and specialization, so that depending on your situation, you are neither over nor under serviced.

Fit Your Enterprise Size

Your scope of service requirement varies depending on your organizational structure. Whether you are a small home business, or multiple-lane retail chain, Eigen's solutions are designed to fit with your specific needs.

Standards Compliance

Eigen's solutions are certified from the point of purchase to the point of processing. Eigen expedites the certification process to bring to market new solutions, at lower cost.

Service & Support

Every Eigen solution is backed up by the dedicated support of our specialized and knowledgeable team of technicians. Count on us 24/7 for time-critical, efficient support.

Simplification

Simplify processing by creating a wider network of options for merchants. Give merchants the tools they need to be successful with payments. Manage the complexity of payments so merchants don't have to.

Security, Reliability & Integrity

Meeting the world-wide demand for higher security, with solutions built for confidentiality, integrity and authentication. Adherence to the highest moral and ethical principles when dealing with our clients' systems and data.

Specialization

Superior technical expertise, twenty years of experience, and the full spectrum of payment technologies developed and managed in-house. Commitment to specialization in order to thrive in the rapidly evolving payment industry.

Scalability

Create solutions that efficiently integrate. Better enable merchants to deal with their customers' shifting demands for payment options. Give merchants the freedom to grow and the tools to manage growth.
